

Hi guys

Just an update on what's been happening:-

On the 16th November Sherry and I attended a conference run by Betsy at business link for women wanting to expand their network in order to help start up their own businesses. We collected a good few contacts including a lady Karen White from Champion clothing co; she proved very valuable to us and has shared a few contacts with us used by her. I found Karen very helpful as she herself started from scratch just like ourselves and doesn't give out poppycock advice!

Our logo was completed through Steve Mcglen and kept as the original and looks fantastic on card. Thank you very much Steve.

Our business plan was presented by myself with the help of Karen, Sherry and John and was written off as completed (phew). Can I take this opportunity to thank everyone for all their hard work and determination for the project to work we couldn't have got this far without you.

We have met a few times with Miranda to learn more about how to use the pc accurately and make use of the facilities we can use in order to advertise the shop in the best way these are proving very handy and I'm sure will prove its purpose when we finish the training.

Also we have met up with Hannah who is very keen for us to make a dvd to show how we made this project work so we can show the dvd to different people as proof it can work and show the benefits of a project like this.

A visit to the farm at new line learning was made and it came up that a possibility would be we could purchase a freezer for the school so they could store their fresh meat and give us the chance to purchase the produce from them for delivery (more information can be obtained if required).

On December the 5th (see below) our first mini sale will commence at Bellwood CPS Christmas Fete where we will have a stall along side Jo - activmobs and Jim Boot. We will be taking wish lists of the public's wanted items and selling these in the last week of school so everyone is welcome to come along.

We are awaiting quotes for the refurbishment of the new community room and then as soon as finished a grand opening date will be given for you all to come.

So much has happened, I apologise for the lengthy email, if you would like the weekly update please feel free to email me and I will add you to my contacts.

Many thanks
